

Qualification Specification

Level 6 NVQ Diploma in Sign Language Interpreting

501/0076/2

Sept 2017 – Aug 2018

QUALIFICATION SPECIFICATION

Signature Level 6 NVQ Diploma in Sign Language Interpreting (RQF)

(RQF Accreditation Number: 501/0076/2)

(Signature Qualification Reference: INT6)

Qualification aim

The aim of Signature Level 6 NVQ Diploma in Sign Language Interpreting is to provide those who are working or training as interpreters with the underpinning knowledge, understanding and skills in order to effectively fulfil the role.

This qualification uses the National Occupational Standards in Interpreting (CILT, 2006), which define competent performance in interpreting.

It has been assumed for the purposes of this specification that candidates for assessment will have language competence as set down by CfA, the UK standards setting organisation for languages, before embarking on this programme.

This qualification is available in several language combinations either signed language <-> signed language, or signed language <-> spoken language.

To achieve the qualification, candidates must show evidence of the required language competences by using the same two languages to complete each unit in their portfolio.

Qualification objectives

At the end of the qualification candidates will be able to:

- demonstrate good practice in their area of professional activity
- demonstrate their ability to carry out interpreting assignments to a professional standard
- be fully aware of the role of the professional interpreter and the principles of professional practice
- evaluate and reflect on performance
- promote personal and professional development.

Essential requirements

Candidates are expected to have language competence in both languages for which they provide evidence for this qualification. This should be:

- the equivalent of Level 6 in their first language. At Level 6, candidates can understand and use complex and specialised language*. Candidates can deal with all work situations, both within and outside candidates' area of professional expertise
- the equivalent of Level 6 in the second language. At Level 6, candidates can understand and use complex language and express themselves fluently. Candidates can deal confidently with most work situations.

It is the responsibility of the centre to ensure that the above language requirements have been met before accepting a candidate for this qualification.

*The Certificate of Proficiency in English is an internationally recognised qualification, which will enable a candidate to bring their English language up to Level 6 standard.

Qualification structure

To be awarded a Level 6 NVQ Diploma in Sign Language Interpreting candidates must achieve five units in total (four mandatory units and one optional) in order to be awarded the full qualification. Candidates will provide proof of their interpreting competence against the National Occupational Standards by compiling a portfolio of evidence covering the five chosen units. The centre internally assesses and verifies all units. External quality assurance is provided by Signature.

Level 6 NVQ Diploma in Sign Language Interpreting consists of five units. Four are mandatory: candidates choose one of the two optional units:

Unit type	Signature unit code	RQF unit number	Unit title	Guided learning hours (GLH)	Additional study/ practice time	Total learning time/ credits
Mandatory	INT6A1	K/602/0479	Prepare for sign language interpreting assignments	130 hours	70 hours	200 hours 20 credits

Optional	INT6G1	R/602/0492	Work with other sign language interpreters	160 hours	80 hours	240 hours 24 credits

Total Qualification Time

Guided learning hours (GLH)	Additional study hours	Total Qualification Time	Credit value at Level 6
850	430	1280	128 Credits at Level 6

Evidence of achievement

Candidates could demonstrate achievement through assessment tasks which should be work based wherever possible.

Evidence may include any or all of the following:

- observation reports
- oral/written questions and answers
- worksheets/workbooks
- witness statement
- recorded evidence (video)
- case studies/assignments
- other suitable supplementary evidence.

The most appropriate evidence for the unit should be used. This is not an exhaustive list and other evidence is acceptable.

Evidence should be varied, the learner's own work and naturally generated from the activities undertaken on the course.

It must clearly demonstrate how the learner has met the assessment criteria for the unit.

The assessor may arrange a professional discussion with the candidate to cover minor gaps in assessment criteria, to complete candidate's claim to competence.

Progression routes

On successful completion of the Signature Level 6 NVQ Diploma in Sign Language Interpreting candidates can apply to become NRCPD Registered Sign Language

Interpreters. For further information about registration requirements please visit the NRCPD website (www.nrcpd.org.uk).

Centre resources

Centres wishing to offer this Diploma should ensure that there are sufficient resources and expertise to support delivery of the programme.

For further guidance please refer to the section “Occupational expertise of assessors and verifiers” in the Appendix.

UNIT SPECIFICATION

Unit INT6A1 - Prepare for Sign Language Interpreting Assignments (Mandatory)

(RQF Accreditation Number K602/0479)

Unit aims

The candidate will demonstrate their ability to prepare for interpreting assignments.

The unit is recommended for people who have excellent language skills in two languages and would like to develop or accredit the skills needed to work as a professional interpreter.

Unit INT6A1 - Prepare for Sign Language Interpreting Assignments (Mandatory)

ASSESSMENT SPECIFICATION

Requirements	Guidance
1. Minimum of four samples of preparation.	Preparation needs to relate to actual assignments (whether those assignments are real or simulated).
2. Each of the four samples should be a minimum of 1,000 words in length and relate to theoretical models.	Candidates could provide evidence relating to different models such as: Helper, Conduit, Bilingual/Bicultural, Interactive, Ally, as well as Cognitive processing or Sociolinguistic models. This is not an exhaustive list and other theoretical models are acceptable. Candidates may also find models from outside the field of interpreting and translation useful such as Tuckman (if preparing for an assignment which is a new team's first meeting). Mnemonics may also be useful such as Hymes' SPEAKING mnemonic. To show that the assessment criteria has been met it is expected that evidence will include reference and/or quotes from theoretical models.
3. There must be evidence of preparation of language analysis in each sample: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) at least one example of one-way sample b) at least two examples of two-way samples c) one other sample either one-way or two-way. 	Possibilities*: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1. English into BSL 2. BSL into English 3. BSL into ISL 4. ISL into BSL 5. French into BSL 6. BSL into French 7. ASL into BSL 8. BSL into ASL. * Candidates must use the same two languages in each unit.

Guidance for assessment criteria: 2.2

Sign language interpreters are required to provide evidence of Professional Indemnity Insurance (PII). See the NRCPD website for further details.

Evidence of insurance may include:

- Written statement about Professional Indemnity Insurance (PII) in preparation for their future assignments when qualified.
- As part of the assessment, candidates can show evidence of discussion and understanding of insurance.

Knowledge and understanding

Knowledge and understanding is not assessed separately, but through achievement of the assessment criteria.

- K1 The languages in which you interpret, with the ability to function at Level 6 for your first language; and Level 6 for your other language(s). (See the listening/reception and speaking/production units of the National Language Standards for performance and knowledge requirements.)
- K2 The process of interpreting from one language into another and how to overcome the impact of the difference between languages.
- K3 The cultures of the languages in which you interpret and their conventions for communication, and the implications of these aspects for the planning of the interpreting assignment.
- K4 The modes of consecutive and simultaneous interpreting.
- K5 Techniques to anticipate the type and degree of difficulty of the assignment and the client's and the users' needs.

- K6 Techniques to deliver effective communication between source and target language users.
- K7 The role of the interpreter and the principles of professional conduct, specifically the need to:
- disclose any information, including conflict of interest which may make you unsuitable for an assignment
 - be impartial, maintain integrity and professionalism
 - treat all information you receive in the course of your duties as confidential, unless required to disclose by law
 - respect the ethics and the working practices of other professions.
- K8 Contract negotiation and agreement, including timescales, payment and professional indemnity as well as third party insurance.
- K9 Techniques to research and verify general and domain-specific terminology.
- K10 Techniques to compile and maintain glossaries of terminology.
- K11 Sources of general and specialist information to assist with assignments, e.g. Internet, leaflets, video, glossaries and technical journals.

Unit INT6B1 - Interpret one-way as a Professional Sign Language

Interpreter (Mandatory)

ASSESSMENT SPECIFICATION

Requirements	Guidance
1. Evidence should total at least 90 minutes of interpreting.
2. Evidence should demonstrate the interpreter's full command of both languages.	The ability to pick up the speaker's tone, emphasis, pace and therefore attitude, in order to convey meaning to BSL users, and vice versa.
3. In one-to-one and groups situations.
4. There should be at least three samples to show interpreting from first to second language and at least three samples from second to first language. Samples to include evidence of simultaneous* and consecutive interpreting into both first and second languages.	An example of a one-way consecutive assignment: A deaf person is shadowing a colleague from a different department. The deaf person has no knowledge of how the department operates. The terminology used by the department is also new to the interpreter. To ensure they have an understanding of the information, the interpreter asks the staff member to provide the information in chunks so that they can work consecutively throughout the assignment. *It is understood that consecutive interpreting may be the considered mode of interpreting for candidates working from sign language to sign language. In such cases simultaneous interpreting will still need to be evidenced at least once into both the first and second languages.

5. All samples will be at least ten minutes in length.	Consecutive interpreting can be cross referenced with INT6C1. Evidence will need to be sustained and on the same topic. Example: BSL>English>BSL: A candidate interprets a BSL user 'dictating' a letter in chunks and voices it for a third party to type up in English (one-way). The completed letter is then read back (in chunks) by the third party for the candidate to sign for the BSL user to verify (two-way).
6. Use of technology, e.g. microphone, video link and telephone.	Candidates are able to cross reference evidence with INT6C1. Interpreters should know how to switch on a hand-held or lapel microphone, and be aware of the effect that interpreting via videophone or telephone has on the interpreting process. Interpreters should also know when it is inappropriate to become involved in technical matters. Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use of Powerpoint – may have the potential to hinder effective interpretation and preparation, e.g. the interpreter asks the speaker to pause before commenting on a slide that needs to be read by the audience, or clarifies if the speaker is pointing or referring to a slide. • Use of a video relay service (deaf person has a webcab or videophone). If video link lasts over 30 minutes for health and safety reasons interpreter would need a break. • Telephone – using a speaker phone or headsets when interpreting. Automated phone system can create potential difficulties in the interpreting process.

Knowledge and understanding

Knowledge and understanding is not assessed separately, but through achievement of the assessment criteria.

- K1 The process of interpreting from one language into another.
- K2 The languages in which you interpret, with the ability to function at Level 6 for your first language; and Level 6 for your other language. (See the listening/reception and speaking/production units of the National Language Standards for performance and knowledge requirements.)
- K3 The cultures of the languages in which you interpret and their conventions for communication, and the implications of these aspects for the delivery of one-way interpreting assignments.
- K4 Register (frozen, formal, colloquial, informal, intimate) and the transfer of register from one language to the other.
- K5 The interpreting modes of consecutive and simultaneous.
- K6 Techniques to deliver effective communication in a one-way presentation.
- K7 Techniques to manage the process of communication if it breaks down in one or more of the following ways:
- You need to check on meaning.
 - The degree of complexity, technicality or emotional charge is beyond your ability to deal with it.
 - Your position and/or that of the users hinders communication.
 - The conduct of the presenter prevents you from interpreting effectively.
 - The presenter is communicating too fast or too slowly.
- K8 The role of the interpreter and the principles of professional practice.
- K9 The domain(s) in which you interpret and how to work with professionals in your field.

- K10 The use of technology, health and safety and how to trouble-shoot when there is a technical problem.

- K11 Techniques of taking notes when interpreting in consecutive mode.

ASSESSMENT SPECIFICATION

Requirements	Guidance
1. Minimum of four samples of evaluation which must contain evidence either on video or of live observation.	Evaluations which are the result of, own reflections, use of theoretical models and feedback from colleagues and clients to produce an accurate analysis of own performance as an interpreter.
2. Evaluation needs to relate to actual assignments (whether those assignments are real or simulated).
3. The use of interpreting theory should be included in all evidence.	Guidance notes on interpreting theory from INT6A1 might be useful. Other methods such as Miscue and Discourse Analysis. This list is not exhaustive.
4. One-to-one and in groups.
5. At least one sample must be of one-way interpreting and two samples of two-way.
6. Evidence of first to second language and second to first language.

7. Written development plan covering at least a six-month period.	Demonstrate own development by completing a written development plan. This should include learning and action points from reflective/learning journals. The development plans to show evidence of self-assessment and identification of any further learning required (which could include research, specialist training, or mentoring, for example).

Knowledge and understanding

Knowledge and understanding is not assessed separately, but through achievement of the assessment criteria.

- K1 Concepts and terminology commonly used to analyse interpreting performance, e.g. development of glossaries, choice of modes of interpreting, error analysis, chunking and the use of time-lag in simultaneous interpreting, and the effectiveness of the interpretation in the context and environment of the assignment.
- K2 Methods to review and assess your preparation for assignments.
- K3 Methods to review your interpreting performance.
- K4 Methods to review your management of the interpreting assignments.
- K5 Methods to check that your analysis of strengths and weaknesses is accurate and justifiable.

To plan and implement your development programme effectively, you must have knowledge of:

- K1 Strategies to improve your performance and knowledge.
- K2 Opportunities for continuing professional development, e.g. training courses, use of published materials or self-study.
- K3 Criteria and techniques to evaluate your development programme.
- K4 The advice on continuing professional development available from professional bodies.
- K5 Sources of information, such as mentors, peers, clients and users, who can offer you advice on your development.

An example of sight translation might be an occasion when you are interpreting at an interview or meeting where a Deaf person needs help to complete a form, such as a guidance leaflet, and the interpreter needs to sight translate this as part of the assignment.
2. The written document should be between 180 – 250 words in length and contain complex language appropriate to this level.	Please note that the materials should be of a Level 6 standard, e.g. for example, candidates should not sight translate a basic letter where the information is basic and not complex. Examples of evidence at Level 6 are: Leaflets, DLA questionnaires, local government letters, course evaluation forms, financial and healthcare letters This is not an exhaustive list and other examples can be found in the glossary. An explanation of complex language is provided in the glossary and an overview can be found in the UK Occupational Language Standards.
3. There must be evidence to show the recipient has understood the translation.	This could be a combination of head nods, relevant questions asked, seeking clarification from the interpreter with the recipient actively engaged in the translation.
