UNIT SPECIFICATION

Unit ISL101 – Introduction to Irish Sign Language (Frontline Staff)

(RQF Unit Number: F/503/0134)

Unit summary and aim

This unit is designed to teach learners to communicate with Deaf people in Irish Sign Language (ISL) on a range of topics that involve simple, everyday language use.

The specification has been designed using the UK Occupational Language Standards 2010 at Level 1.

Unit ISL101 (Frontline Staff) is internally assessed by the teacher.

The recommended guided learning hours are 20 hours as shown below:

Unit	Guided learning hours (GLH)	Additional study hours	Total learning time	Credit value at level 1
ISL101 (Frontline Staff)	20	10	30	3

GLH includes assessment time.

Additional study hours include private study, homework, practice, etc.

Qualification objectives

At the end of the unit, learners will be able to:

- understand and use a limited range of simple relevant words and sentences in ISL
- take part in simple, everyday conversations in ISL
- give and follow simple directions or instructions in ISL
- give and follow simple familiar statements or descriptions in ISL.

Target group

Unit ISL101 (Frontline Staff) is designed to provide a nationally accredited unit of ISL skills for people who work in frontline services and who may come into contact with Deaf people. These may be as Deaf colleagues, customers, clients, service users, or any member of the general public. Unit ISL101 (Frontline Staff) can be taken without any previous ISL experience at any level. This unit allows learners to gain basic skills.

Deaf people's experience of communication when they interface with service providers is often disappointing. Staff need to be aware of the isolation and frustration many Deaf people experience in their dealings with the various services that make up the private and public sector.

N.B this unit will provide frontline staff with basic ISL skills only. In a more complicated situation it is essential that a Registered Sign Language Interpreter is booked, this unit will not give learners the skills needed to interpret. For more information, please visit www.nrcpd.org.uk.

Unit ISL101 (Frontline Staff) is suitable for those who:

- wish to learn basic ISL skills to facilitate simple communication with Deaf people while at work
- wish to learn new ISL skills as part of a programme of study
- wish to progress to more advanced study and/or employment using ISL in the future
- are studying for personal development
- are parents, family, friends or colleagues of Deaf people.

Unit ISL101 (Frontline Staff) is suitable for all ages, including pre-16.

Progression routes

This unit can be achieved separately but to achieve the full Level 1 Award in Irish Sign Language the learner will need to complete units ISL102 and ISL103.

On completion of Unit ISL101 (Frontline Staff) and units ISL102 and ISL103, a wide range of further qualifications are available, including:

- Signature Level 2 Certificate in Irish Sign Language
- Signature Level 3 Certificate in Irish Sign Language.

If learners wish to complete Unit ISL101 (Frontline Staff) only, a certificate can be issued. If they wish to undertake the three units in Level 1 Award in Irish Sign Language, a certificate will be issued on completion of the award.

Unit ISL101 (Frontline Staff)

ASSESSMENT SPECIFICATION

Please read this specification and Signature's Assessment Regulations/General Regulations on our website.

Assessment for this unit will be a basic conversation, between teacher and candidate. Teachers will create activities to cover all the learning outcomes (see page 3) which will be recorded on the Candidate Assessment Record (CAR) Form provided (see page 9).

Candidates will produce evidence which will show both productive and receptive skills for each item on the CAR form. More than one item can be demonstrated in one activity.

The centre will allocate an appropriate person to mark the assessment on the CAR forms. This person will probably work for the centre as their teacher-assessor and must complete the CAR form. External quality assurance will be carried out by Signature. A sample of assessments may be requested for this purpose. If an assessment has been chosen for quality assurance, the assessment must be recorded on a DVD and sent to Signature within seven days after the assessment.

The teacher-assessor can decide if the assessment will be carried out either on a continuous basis over the length of the unit, or at the end of the unit. It is not necessary to assess all assessment criteria, or all candidates, at the same time. If the assessment is carried out at the end of the teaching time or recorded for external quality assurance purposes it should be no more than five minutes.

Assessment time is included into the 20 hours of guided learning time.

When the assessment has finished the teacher-assessor should follow Signature regulations for instructions on returning paperwork.

The pass mark for the assessment is 85%, i.e. 15/18. Refer to page 8 for the guidelines.
